

Letter from Gardiner Greene Hubbard to Alexander Graham Bell, September 29, 1896

Twin Oaks, West Washington, D.C. September 29, 1896. Dear Mr. Bell:—

Your favor of September 19 received. Your name was inserted in the form of Oil Leasers without my knowledge and authority. Mr. Harrington suggested that your name be inserted as one of the lessees, but I objected and said I knew you would not like to have your name used.

Very truly yours, Gardiner G. Hubbard
